Once upon a time there was a talking frog named Strawberry-Chan. Strawberry-chan loved ♥ his boy, Akiyoshi very much, but Akiyoshi liked nothing more than to use a straw to blow Strawberry-chan up like a balloon, much to the frog's chagrin. Akiyoshi's friends all feel very differently about Strawberry-chan. Some of them wish he were treated better, some really love him and one even wishes that he was Strawberry-chan. With all of this love and abuse, will our frog possibly survive the first volume?

The small road is filled with tons of caterpillars, but that's the only road to my school.
So, during Spring, caterpillars from both sides of the road begin this massive migration towards each other.

You can't stop or slow down, because you don't wanna have to put your feet down on that road.
The road becomes slippery with smashed bodies of caterpillars.

A long time ago, a big super-market was built in my neighbor-hood.

We used that road to go shopping with mom all the time.

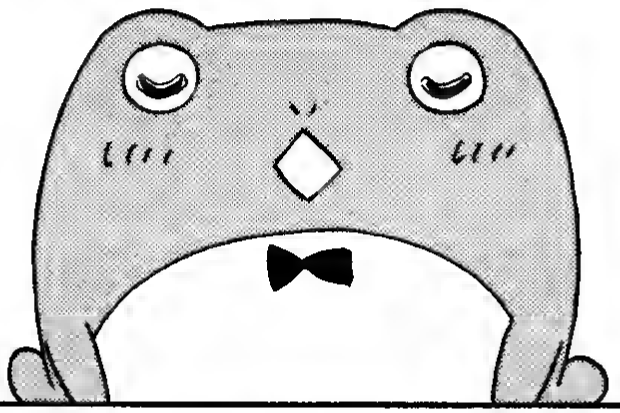
Thank you for your purchase ♡

Those who haven't, buy it!

Please!



It's been so long! It's been very very long! 5 years since the first episode came out!

I HATE THIS!
GYAAAH
The author isn't very smart, and she forgets what he's done in the past. She found out that there's some overlap with other series during editing...

Don't mind this!
Over-lapping...
Before this volume came out, more than 10 issues of the comics had been published. Time flies...
13? 14?
